

THE KEY POINTS OF ORBÁN'S MEDIA POLICY

Launch of the MEDIA COUNCIL

2010

Adopting MEDIA LAWS

KLUBRÁDIÓ LAWSUITS

2011

Adopting the new CIVIL CODE, damages for emotional distress, community membership

2012

2013

DIGITAL SWITCHOVER

ACQUISITION of TV2

2014

Adopting the ADVERTISING TAX

FIRING of the EDITOR-IN-CHIEF of ORIGO, resignation of the editorial staff

NATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE established

Tightening of the FREEDOM of INFORMATION ACT

2015

TRANSFORMATION of PUBLIC SERVICE MEDIA, merger of media service companies, launch of M1 news channel

The VS.HU SCANDAL

2016

CLOSURE of NÉPSZABADSÁG

The CLASS FM LAWSUIT, launch of Retro Radio

2017

Acquisition of SIMICSKA COMPANIES

Foundation of KESMA (Central European Press and Media Foundation)

Adopting the „FAKE NEWS” (scaremongering) law

2018

Capture of INDEX, resignation of editorial staff

2019

KLUBRÁDIÓ loses its frequency

2020

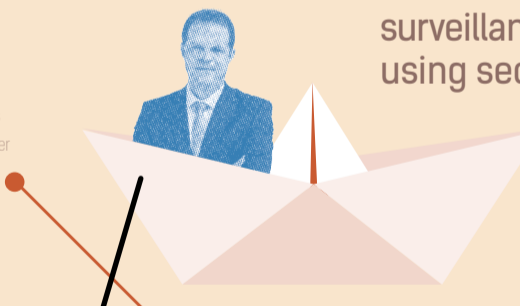

PEGASUS SCANDAL: surveillance of journalists (and others) using secret service tools

Adopting the HOMOPHOBIC LAW

2021

PRESIDENT cemented in place at the MEDIA COUNCIL

The ANONYMUS ATTACK against the propaganda media

2022

Permanent loss of KLUBRÁDIÓ'S terrestrial frequency

The state purchase of NEMZETI SPORT

Consolidation at KESMA

Acquisition of VODAFONE HUNGARY

2023

DDOS ATTACKS launched against independent editorial offices

VIKTOR ORBÁN'S PRESS LAWSUITS

2024

The SOVEREIGNTY PROTECTION OFFICE is established

MCC enters the media market

2025

Closure of the Hungarian editorial office of RADIO FREE EUROPE

Acquisition of BLIKK (Ringier newspapers)